I just came in from outside. The DOT officer came in response to my call to ticket the cars. One he did not ticket because a person was sitting inside it which I mentioned is the new thing. Instead he gave the person several warnings, was about to ticket him, when his friends returned, so he got off. But he had been there for quite a while before enforcement showed up. The limo also got away. While I was outside in the dark I counted almost 50 people walking in the street including almost a dozen kids and a baby stroller. You think conditions here are safe and acceptable? Why do you continue to promote this? Do I keep repeating myself? If so, it is because I am only responding to what I keep seeing.

My husband and I left for a few hours to escape all of the people. We just got back to find FIVE ILLEGALLY AND UNTICKETED CARS parked in front of our house!!!! Where is all of this increased enforcement that our tax dollars are paying for? One of them is even a limo. Again look how dark it is and all of these people are still walking around in the street with lots of kids. THIS ALL HAS TO END BEFORE THAT TRAGEDY HAPPENS. So far this holiday has been a mismanaged mess!!!

City of Los Angeles Mail - Journalist promotes trespassing...

Subject: Re: Christmas in Hollywoodland

I notice that in a construction zone there are signs posted to the effect that fines for any infraction of traffic laws will be double the usual amount. Maybe instead of Caution on the electronic signs down on Beachwood we should put that same warning.

Ignorance of the law does not pardon the illegal action

There has always been a double standard for tourists. Rangers were told to just give warnings under La Bonge's regime. I think they are operating under the same old rule because nothing since has been mandated.

There seems to be a double standard with regard to enforcement of any of the traffic or fire code violations with our LAPD.

I was in my front garden when I heard an officer asking a visitor/tourist to move on that he was parked illegally in a red no stopping zone. The tourist already out of his car tried to debate with the officer that there was no other suitable place to park so he could just take a picture, the officer let him know that if he wrote him up a ticket it would be about $300 and asked him graciously to move on. I yelled out...Give him the ticket! How else are we to have some order up here if everyone just gets a slap on the hand when they obviously disregard the law when there are signs posted everywhere. If he had gotten the ticket, You know that young tourist would have been upset enough to post it on Instagram or facebook alerting everyone with a copy of his $300 ticket stating...it's not worth it!

I was parked with the car running a while back in front of the market to drop off my dry cleaning and a traffic officer hidden behind the parking lot came to give me a ticket, even though I was already back in my car by the time he got there. There was no free pass for me a resident I paid the $100 ticket and that cured me from trying that again. While I appreciate the work the officers are doing up here today, if someone is parked illegally, or smoking, they need to enforce with the applicable tickets and fines they do not need to give anyone a free pass
